

Back-to-school fun at the Indigo

Thursday, 22 Aug 2013 by Lake Highlands Today

Last week, the Indigo Apartments on Forest Lane had their annual back-to-school party to get kids ready for the new school year.

There were 500 backpacks filled with school supplies for the kids who live there, and there was plenty of fun to be had by all.

The Indigo property provided hamburgers and hotdogs, clowns, a bounce house, dunking booth, face painting, music, and much more.

District 10 Councilman Jerry Allen attended the event to meet the residents and celebrate with them.

Murray Morgan, a resident of the neighborhood near the Indigo, joined Allen at the event and learned more about the amenities which includes indoor and outdoor soccer fields, a clubroom, 11 swimming pools, a fitness center, a social room, a business center and much more.

Manager Kristi Ceranski organized the back-to-school event and couldn't have done a better job. Hundreds of residents enjoyed the fun and community spirit. Not to mention, 500 very lucky kids got brand new backpacks with their school supplies and are ready and excited for a new school year.
