

Bridge Investment Group Partners raises $60 million for ROC Debt Strategies Fund Manager, LLC

NEW YORK, NY October 1, 2014 – Bridge Investment Group Partners, LLC (“Bridge-IGP”), in conjunction with its newly formed subsidiary, ROC Debt Strategies Fund Manager, LLC (“ROC Debt Strategies”), announced today that it has raised more than $60 million of AUM in its first month of operation.

Bridge-IGP Chairman Robert Morse said, “We are very pleased to have had a successful first month and have deployed much of this capital in high-yielding debt instruments that offer our investors substantial current income and capital appreciation with mitigated risk.”

James Chung, CIO of ROC Debt Strategies, added, “Our team is thrilled to have received $60 million in AUM during our first month of operation. We have already been awarded two very attractive deals and have developed a pipeline of compelling investment opportunities. We hope to increase our investor base through co-investments, separately managed accounts, and private equity commitments as we continue to build out our portfolio and offer investors a uniquely tailored and differentiated product.”

Bridge Investment Group Partners is an SEC-registered investment adviser with $2.4 billion of Regulatory Assets Under Management (RAUM) that manages private equity funds, separately managed accounts, and co-investments. Its principals have decades of experience successfully investing in the multifamily, commercial office, seniors housing, and CRE-backed fixed income sectors. Bridge-IGP and its affiliates employ over 1,000 people in 17 states and manage/own 32,000 apartment units as well as 2 million square feet of commercial office space.
